Bible Translations

Reason for statement: Proliferation of Bible translations and versions

We believe in the verbal (every word is inspired)/plenary (each book is equally inspired) inspiration of Scriptures. God gave the words of Scripture by inspiration without error in the original autographs. God has protected His Word so that we hold in our hands the very Word of God.

We hold to a word-for-word translation (formal equivalence), understanding that in translation we are not able to replicate the Word exactly.

For the sake of consistency and to avoid confusion, we request all teaching, preaching, and memorization be done from the King James Version or the New King James Version.
